

ATTENTION SAN JOSE TEENS

What do you think about the way the police treat teens?
How about the way that teens treat the police?

If you are a San Jose teen, age 15-18,
we want to know what YOU think!

Join the IPA Teen Leadership Council -- aka the IPA-TLC

The IPA is a city office that takes complaints about police misconduct in San Jose. The IPA-TLC is an advisory council made up of YOUTH. It was established in April of 2010 and is still going strong!

Meetings are the 3rd Saturday of each month, 10am-12pm, in downtown San Jose. Guest speakers have included Mayor Reed, SJPd Chief of Police Chris Moore, community leaders, lawyers, judges and youth service providers.

- TLC members participate in community outreach and develop their leadership skills.
- You must live or go to school in San Jose + be 15 to 18 years old to apply.
- It does not matter whether you have had contact with the police or not.
- It does not matter what your grades are.
- You must be able to get along with teens from all over San Jose. (No drama!)

For more info visit www.sanjoseca.gov/IPA or call (408) 794-6226.

DEADLINE TO APPLY: Thursday, May 31, 2012, at 5pm.
